

Stand out from the crowd...

Learn Chinese!

At The Princeton Review, we know it is increasingly difficult for students interested in top universities to stand out from other, equally qualified applicants.

That's why we are proud to announce our newest Partner in Education: IQChinese.

IQChinese provides fun, easy-to-grasp instruction in Mandarin, that is perfect for any beginner. This is both a great way for your student to stand out as he (or she) applies to colleges, and a way to prepare for success in the 21st century.

Classes begin March 24th in Irvine.
